Detailed premium list and programs will be printed and ready for distribution not later than Monday, Oct. 18th.

Do not forget the old fashioned basket dinner on Friday noon. This will be handled in a different way than it was last year. Each family in the community should bring their dinner, and it has been suggested by the committee that family groups and neighbors by serving their dinners together will form social groups as well as eliminate the tremendous amount of labor and not cause the ladies to miss a large part of the program.

Everything Else Neglected.

Just to show how a county seat fight will submerge a lot of much more important matters (and, incidentally bring to the surface a lot of hard feelings and bitter words), it might be mentioned that last week's Mound City News-Jeffersonian was so completely engrossed with matter touching Mound City's efforts to move the county seat from Oregon that a mere five lines, on an inside page, was devoted to mention of one of the biggest robberies pulled off in Holt county in many a year.

The item referred to was as follows:

"Last Sunday morning thieves entered the Dawson store in this city and took suits and overcoats totaling in value from $2,000 to $3,000. There is no clew to the robberies."

Our good friend, Editor Mills, ought to be ashamed of himself for so nearly ignoring an item which should have been worth at least a No. 2 scare-head on the front page of this paper.

However, after Nov. 2nd, there will doubtless be more room on the front pages of Holt county newspapers for legitimate news instead of invidious and sarcasm, charges and counter-charges. Too bad, too bad!—Atchison County Mail, October 8, 1920.

Strickler's Twelfth Annual Sale

of Big Type Cholera Immuned Poland-China Boars and Gilts,

Sale to be Held at Craig, Mo., on Wednesday, October 20

50 Head—25 Boars; 25 Gilts—50 Head

The greater part of this offering is sired by Royal Bob, the largest boar in the state for his age. He was good enough to win first prize at the Missouri State Fair in 1920.

We expect the greater part of this offering to sell at a price the farmer can afford to pay. There has never been a time in the history of the hog business that there was such an opportunity to make money as at the present time. Feed is cheap and plentiful—hogs are scarce and high. Put one of these big, husky, growthy boars at the head of your herd and produce several hundred pounds more pork than you can with the commoner boar. Write or phone for Catalog. Sale under cover—rain or shine.

TERMS:—Cash or bankable note.

T. W. Strickler

AUCTIONEERS—Col. W. G. Lockridge, Fayette, Mo.; Col. F. L. Bradford, Fairfax, Mo.; Col. W. H. Fell, Craig, Mo.
